

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's law against telemarketers. Please don't let them get away with weaking our law. Things have been SOOOO much better since the law was passed. Companies that I have a relationship with can already contact me in a number of ways besides the phone.